Hagsfeld

Baptismal and Marriage Certificate of John Mentzer, a citizen of Hogsfeld, and Baptismal Certificate of his five children.

CERTIFICATE

Hagsfeld

The bearer of these (Certificates) John Mentzer, civil resident in the place Hogsfeld, was born in lawful wedlock into this world in the year 1701, the second day of March. His parents were John George Mentzer, citizen, and Anna Maria von Heyn. In the year of Christ 1722 the third of March he united in marriage (his first) with Anna Maria Mayer von Büchig. In this union he begot the following children, viz:—John, the twentieth of January, 1723, who is now married. George, born the twenty-first of July 1727, yet of single condition. Anna Maria, born the 1st of April, 1729, single.

Heim (Rintheim

In the year of Christ 1733, the eleventh of August, he enjoyed the blessing of matrimony for a second time with Catherine Weyl, the widow of the late John Spirgi, a weaver in the royal factory who had been a Kuhuler. In this union he begot Conrad, born the 21st day of May, 1734, single. John Michael, the 20th of April, 1741.

Whereas now the said John Mentzer together with his wife and five children aforesaid according to the preliminary, regularly obtained princely permission is disposed to seek further his success, it will accrue to his legitimation to extend to him his baptismal and marriage certificate according to the records of the Church Book together with the impression of my seal and my personal subscription,

(John Frederick Bohm, Minister at Hogsfeld)

Hogsfeld, May 11, 1751.
